

Annual Housing Law Seminar

Tuesday, April 14, 2026
Lathrop GPM | IDS Center
80 S 8th St #3100, Minneapolis, MN 55402

Secondary Trauma | 1 Mental Health CLE Credit 8:00 AM

Presented by Sarah McGillis, Outreach Director, Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers

This program will address the trauma experienced by lawyers working with clients who are experiencing trauma themselves.

Working with Clients Experiencing Domestic Violence | 1 Standard CLE Credit 9:10 AM

Presented by Raylene Caswell, Housing Advocate, Standpoint

This program will provide information on approaches to working with clients experiencing domestic violence and their rights to vacate a property.

Working with Landlords' Attorneys | 1 Standard CLE Credit 10:20 AM

Presented by Vadim Trifel, VLN Staff Attorney; Robin Ann Williams, Abriter PLLC; Morgan Okney, The Law Offices of Morgan Okney, PLLC; and Matthew Goldfine, Bernick Lifson, PA

This program will provide an overview of how to effectively work with landlords' attorneys. It will include role play examples and a gentle question and answer period.

The Ethics of AI | 1 Ethics CLE Credit 11:30 AM

Presented by Eric T. Cooperstein, Law Office of Eric T. Cooperstein, PLLC

This program will address the ethical issues of using AI in legal practice.

Lunch and Awards | Apple Spice Catering Company 12:30 PM

Join us as we celebrate this year's Housing Volunteer and Firm of the Year.